Welcome to the Drong Ngur Jangchubling Buddhist Center. We are conveniently located a few miles from Tampa's urban center in west central Florida, while residing in a peaceful countryside setting that allows for quiet, restorative retreats.

Our center is part of the Drikung Kagyu lineage of Tibetan Buddhism. Its creation is the vision of our teacher and founder, Drupon Thinley Ningpo Rinpoche, whose wish is to serve the local and national Buddhist community by offering the timeless teachings of the Buddha. As a center for Buddhist studies, Drong Ngur Jangchubling holds retreats, hosts visiting teachers, and offers in-depth study of the Buddhadharma. We welcome anyone who is interested in learning about these traditions to visit and practice with us.

Important Information

Directions

The physical address of Dong Ngur Jangchubling is:

30520 Lynne Drive Wesley Chapel, Florida 33543

For the most accurate driving directions you may use Google Maps or another map service of your choice: <https://maps.google.com>

When driving to the center or leaving, please be aware it is located in a rural area and that street lights are minimal at night and the roads can be narrow. There are also sizable potholes in the roads leading up to the center. We encourage visitors to use common caution when driving at night under these conditions.

Public Transit

Public transportation in Wesley Chapel is limited. There is a bus line that runs across State Road 54(the major road closest to Drong Ngur) but no stops are directly by the center. You will need to walk from the bus stop or arrange a pickup by car. Several hotels, shopping centers and restaurants are located on this major road. For route information, please see the Pasco County Transportation PDF which lists the schedule:

<http://www.pascocountyfl.net/DocumentCenter/Home/View/1646>

Regular fare is $1.50 per ride or a 1-Day Pass is $3.75 for unlimited rides. For further guidelines, route information and discounted rates, please visit the Pasco County government's home page and click on the link "Public Transportation".
